

Staying Safe Online

6th November 2017

Is Social Media a Fad?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QtOXL8r9INc>

Social Media

Site/App

Benefits/Risks

Be Social Network Smart

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qh8q26FAyKE>

Staying safe online

Talk to your parents

Use a Nick Name

Don't give out your contact details

Don't send your photo to anyone

Don't meet up in real life on your own

Stay in the public chatroom

Don't open attachments from people you don't know

Dealing with Cyber bullying

Don't give out your contact details

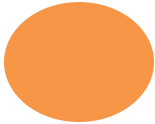

Don't send your photo to anyone

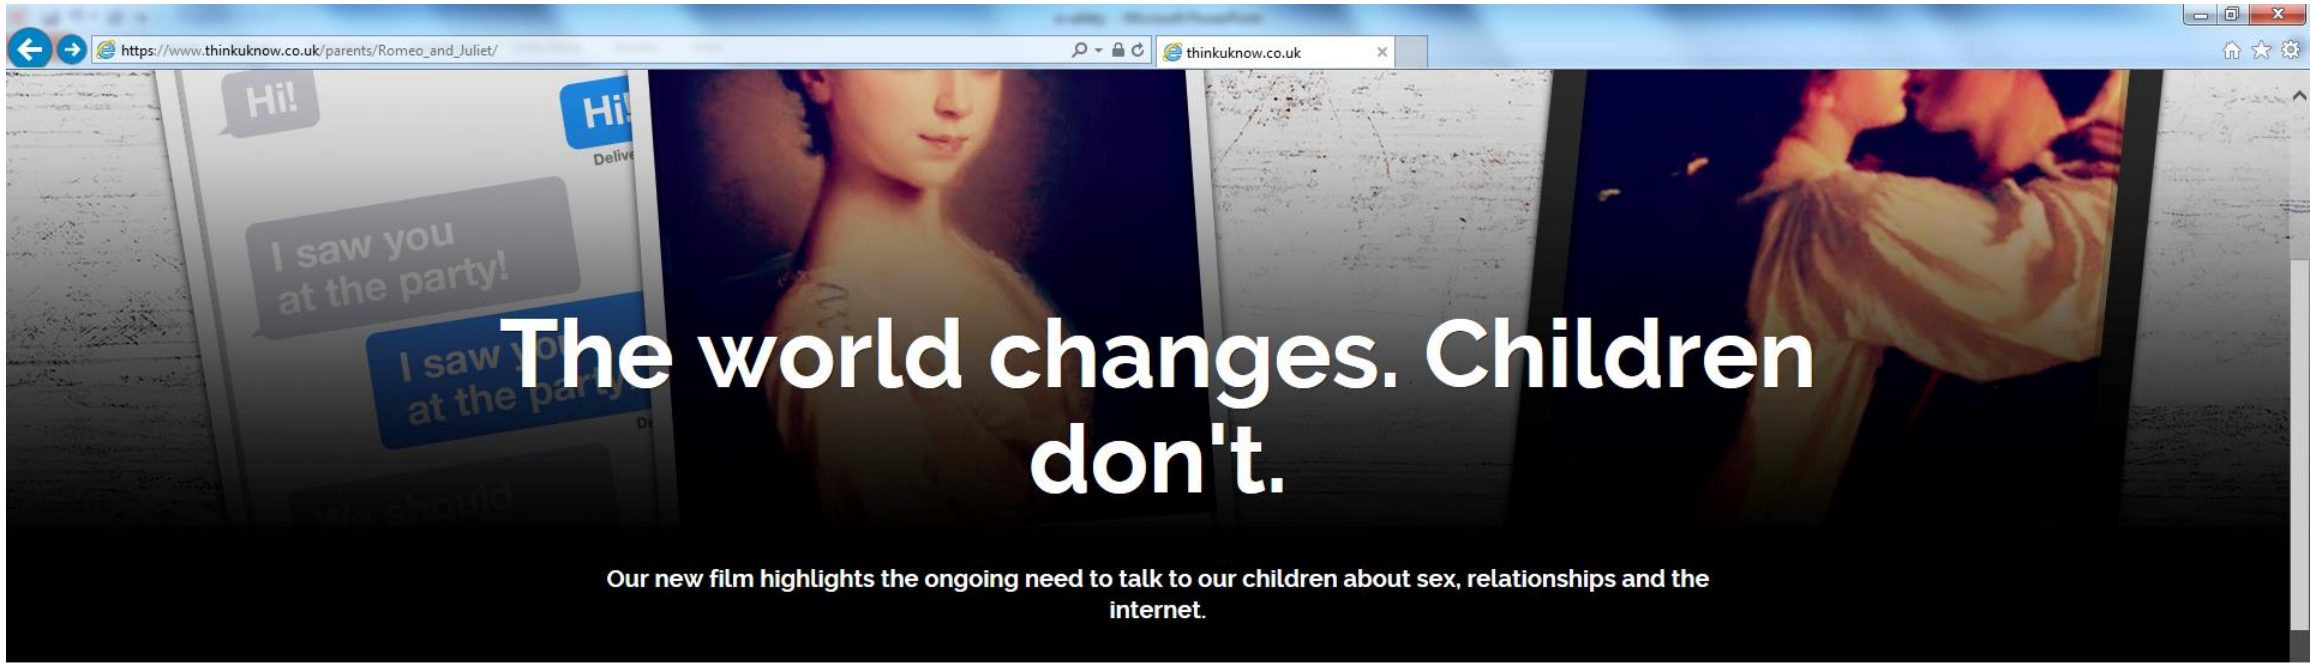

Don't respond back

Contact the website

Tell someone – don't suffer in silent

Some things, like young love, never change. We've given the story of Romeo and Juliet a modern twist, showing how the lives of these young lovers might play out online today.

Social media may have changed the way young people communicate but their curiosity about sex and relationships remains the same. Technology, flirtation, excitement and hormones are a powerful mix. This can make it harder for young people to think clearly about their actions or to consider the possible consequences.

Research tells us that having a supportive parent or carer can make all the difference in helping a young person learn to stay safe, but talking to your child about sex, relationships and the internet can be daunting.

Concerned?

If you're worried about your child and think something is not quite right, it's best to be on the safe side and find out more.

- > Where can I get help?
- > Report an incident to CEOP

Related advice

Supporting positive sexual behaviour

Find out more

Change your safety and privacy settings

Go to the My Account page.

In the upper-right corner, tap or click Sign In to sign in to your Microsoft account.

Tap or click Security, family & forums, and then Privacy settings.

Tap or click one of the links under “Access to content” or “Privacy & online safety,” depending on which area you want to update.

Tap or click your gamertag and change the privacy and safety settings to your preferences.

NSPCC

EVERY CHILDHOOD IS WORTH FIGHTING FOR

Fighting for childhood

Preventing abuse

What you can do

Services and resources

Christmas

helpline

search

Home | Preventing abuse | Keeping children safe | Online safety

Online safety

Helpful advice and tools you can use to help keep your child safe whenever and wherever they go online.

O₂  NSPCC

Kidpower.org

California ▾

School Services ▾

Bull ✕

Prevent and Stop Cyber-Bullying

Ter Zande, Kidpower Founder and Executive Director | Mar 9, 2012

Protect kids from cyber-bullying using these 8 steps from Kidpower. Understanding the potential for online bullying, getting supportive adult supervision, and practicing these important skills can help keep kids safe from cyberbullying and other dangers – and have more fun online.

Bullying, whether it happens online, in social media, by text, or through other technology. The following eight steps are from Kidpower's bullying solutions book, Bullying – What You Know and Do to Keep Kids Safe.

what cyberbullying is and the harm it does with

Free Library Membership

Free community membership includes access to hundreds of articles, handouts, and other resources for learning and teaching.

Join Now

The advertisement features a green background with a computer monitor icon showing a document. Below the monitor, the text "Free Library Membership" is written in white. Underneath that, a smaller line of italicized text describes the benefits. At the bottom right, there is a white button with an orange border and the text "Join Now" in orange.

CEOP

This is a national agency designed to support keeping children safe when online

https://www.thinkuknow.co.uk/11_13/

Child

Explotation and

Online

Protection

Your Task

Design a leaflet or poster aimed at helping to keep pupils safe in their use of online social networking sites and apps.